RE: City of New Orleans NEW Fire Millage

and

Sewerage & Water Board RENEWAL Drainage Millage

This SECOND 2017 property tax bill is the initial 2017 billing for the two 2017 millages adopted by city voters and levied by the City Council after our standard December billing cycle for property taxes in New Orleans had started.

These newly billed taxes for 2017 are for the new 2.5 mill tax voters approved on December 10, 2016 for Fire protection without benefit of any homestead exemption and the 4.46 mill tax renewal, at that same election, for the Sewerage & Water Board to operate and maintain the City's drainage system.

That total additional 2017 tax will become delinquent if not paid in full before June 1, 2017 in accordance with the calculation schedule shown on this bill. Please do not forget or ignore that additional tax obligation due on your property.

If other taxes are delinquent on this property they are also listed with their appropriate interest and penalties.

Administratively we do not spend funds to print and mail any secondary bill which is lower than $1.00. We will show such very low amounts on the City's website, should such information be needed. We will not assess interest on such balances until 30 days after they are ultimately billed as an item on our 2018 original tax bills.
